Turkmen-Chinese Business Forum

People's Republic of China, Shanghai
November 6-7, 2026

Dear Ladies & Gentlemen!

The Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Turkmenistan is honored to invite you to participate in the Turkmen-Chinese Business Forum, which will take place on November 6–7, 2026, in Shanghai as part of the 9th China International exhibition.

The upcoming Forum is intended to serve as an important business platform for further strengthening and expanding trade, economic, and investment cooperation between Turkmenistan and the People's Republic of China, establishing direct contacts between representatives of government agencies and the business communities of both countries, and identifying new promising areas for mutually beneficial partnership.

As part of the Forum's program, discussions are planned on current issues of bilateral cooperation in priority areas such as trade and investment, transportation and logistics, digital technologies, construction and architecture, industry, as well as other promising areas of mutual interest.

The event program includes thematic sessions and panel discussions, as well as bilateral meetings and negotiations in G2G, B2G, and B2B formats, with the participation of representatives from government agencies, relevant organizations, leading Turkmen and Chinese companies, and the business community.

In addition, to provide participants with a more detailed understanding of the operations, best practices, cutting-edge technologies, and production capabilities of Shanghai's leading companies, business visits to the companies headquarters and production facilities are planned.

The forum is organized by the Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Turkmenistan with the support of the "Türkmen maslahatçylar topary" Economic Association and will provide participants with the opportunity to learn about business prospects in the markets of Turkmenistan and China, hold direct negotiations with potential partners, and identify specific areas for further cooperation.

We look forward to welcoming you as a participant in the Turkmen-Chinese Business Forum and hope that your participation will make a significant contribution to the further strengthening of trade, economic, investment, and business relations between Turkmenistan and the People's Republic of China.
